

Special Education Procedures Assuring the Implementation of Comprehensive Programming for Children with Disabilities

Section Revised January 2011

Section 10. Procedural Safeguards

H. Revocation of Consent for Special Education and Related Services

1. A Parent may revoke consent for special education and related services.
2. Revocation of consent for special education and related services may be communicated by a Parent in writing or orally. The District will memorialize the Parent's oral revocation of consent in writing and provide a copy to the Parent within five days.
3. Within 10 calendar days after the School District's receipt of oral or written revocation of consent, the School District will provide the Parent with prior written notice at which time all IEP services shall cease. The School District will promptly inform all staff members whose activities are affected by the revocation.
4. When a Parent revokes consent for special education and related services:
 - a. The School District may not utilize mediation or the due process procedures to obtain agreement or a ruling that the services may be provided to the child.
 - b. The School District is not required to convene an IEP meeting or develop an IEP for the child for further provision of special education and related services.
 - c. The School District will not be considered to be in violation of the requirement to make FAPE available to the child because of the failure to provide the child with further special education and related services.
 - d. The School District is not required to amend the child's education records to remove any reference to the child's receipt of special education and related services because of the revocation of consent.
