

8 REASONS TO ATTEND

#1

Learn new ideas and best practices focusing on school governance. There are multiple opportunities for professional and personal development.

#2

Confer with your peers. Meet and network with other school leaders who are actively interested in the same things you are, including many who have met the same challenges you face.

#3

Keep up on hot topics at sessions covering education trends, emerging issues, and legislative or legal changes.

#4

Enjoy keynote speakers who will motivate and inspire you. Listen, be encouraged, recharge, and renew your commitment to your work as a school leader.

#5

Equip yourself with necessary resources and proper training to fulfill your responsibility to your district and community.

#6

Make your district's voice heard in the governance of your Association. By attending the Delegate Assembly, you have the opportunity to elect leaders and to vote on proposals that set IASB's legislative positions.

#7

Hear about current strategies and what's working for others. School leaders share their latest experiences, knowledge, and lessons learned with you, and their stories will help you plan and cope.

#8

Being around like-minded people is invigorating. Conference gives you a chance to step back from your daily routine and consider your role as a public school leader. It's often difficult to do that when you're attending to family matters and community needs; but Conference sessions and networking enable you to focus, learn, and be enlightened about this important work.
