EDITORIAL STATEMENT — The Illinois School Board Journal seeks to broaden the horizons of citizens serving on local boards of education and to help them deal with emerging issues in public education. Primary content includes analysis, news, and opinion. The Journal is published by the Illinois Association of School Boards as a service to members and subscribers. The Association believes the democratic process functions best through frank and open discussion. Material published therein often presents divergent points of view which do not necessarily represent the views or policies of the Association.

GENERAL INFORMATION — The Illinois School Board Journal is published every other month by the Illinois Association of School Boards and is mailed to school board members, superintendents, and chief business officials in member school districts, as well as to non-member subscribers and key government and education officials. Non-member subscription rate: $20 per year (domestic); $25 per year in U.S. dollars (foreign).

ADVERTISING POLICY — All advertising is subject to the publisher's approval. The publisher reserves the right to reject any advertising that is not in keeping with publication standards. Advertiser and advertising agency assume responsibility for content of advertisements printed and for any claims arising from them against the publisher. Advertising that simulates editorial content will be labeled "advertisement" and/or boxed, at the discretion of the publisher.

DISTRIBUTION — Total distribution of 7,200 includes 5,900 school board members, 850 district superintendents, 62 affiliate members, 61 government officials, 38 regional superintendents, 231 school attorneys, and 70 service associates.

ISSUANCE AND CLOSING DATES — Published bi-monthly. Orders and copy must be received (unless special arrangements are made) by: December 1, for January-February issue; February 1, for March-April issue; April 1, for May-June issue; June 1, for July-August issue; August 1, for September-October issue; October 1, for November-December issue.

INSERTS — For inserts supplied by the advertiser, the Journal is limited to one four-page, center-section unit per issue. The charge is the center spread rate plus any out-of-pocket costs incurred by the Journal, including any back up charges. Paper stock specification for inserts: 70 to 100 lb. offset. Insert must be reviewed and approved by the publisher prior to acceptance.

TERMS — Invoices are mailed upon publication, net 30 days. An advertiser who fails to complete a committed schedule within the contract period will be subject to a short rate. Rates may be changed with 30 days notice in writing from the publisher. You will be invoiced and receive a tear sheet after the Journal has been printed.
